Information on properties

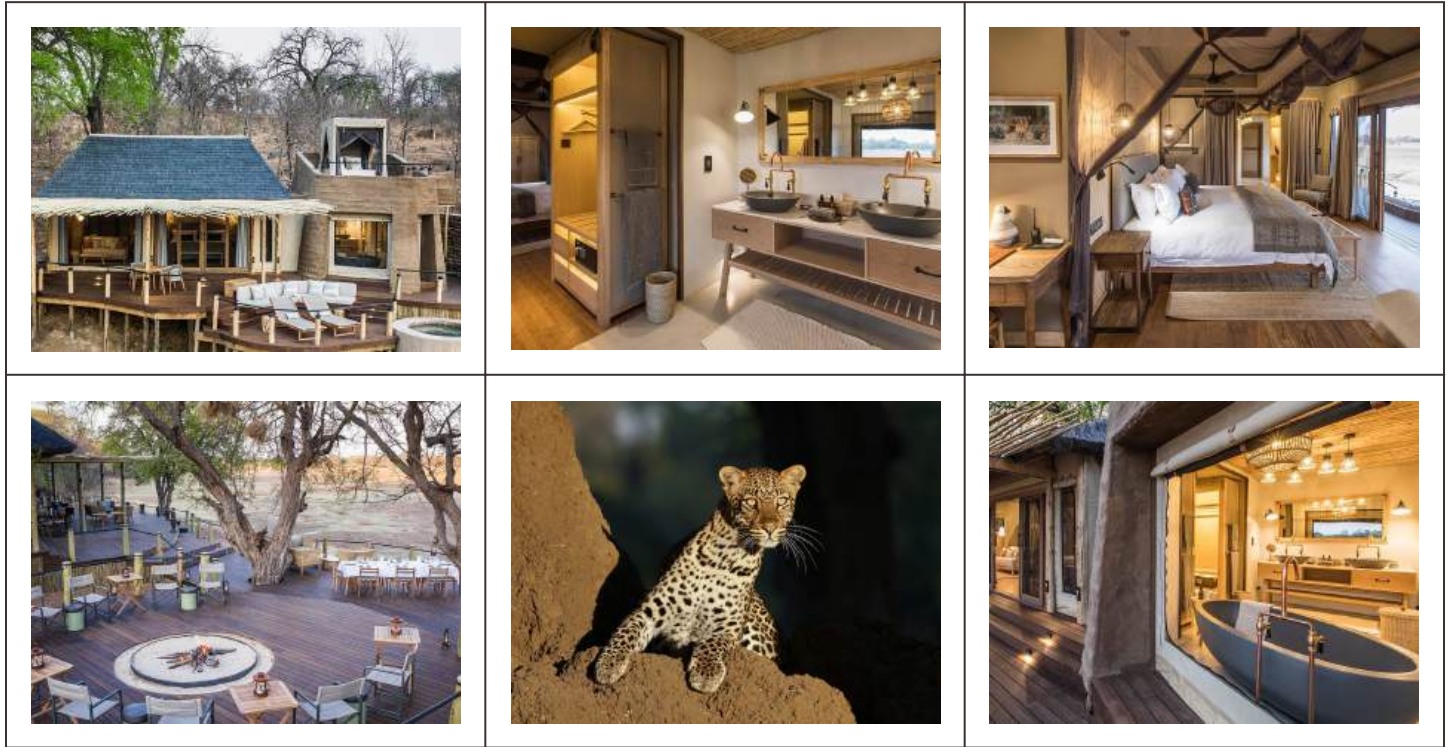

Lolelunga

Lolelunga Private Reserve is an exclusive luxury safari lodge set within a 30,000-hectare private reserve north of Kafue National Park. Positioned along the Lunga River, the lodge offers a contemporary safari experience focused on conservation, privacy, and immersive wildlife encounters. Accommodation consists of 7 riverside suites which includes King Rooms, Junior Suites, and a Family Suite, accommodating up to 14 guests in total. Activities include game drives, walking safaris, canoeing, fishing, and private sleepouts on the elevated Ngoma Deck.

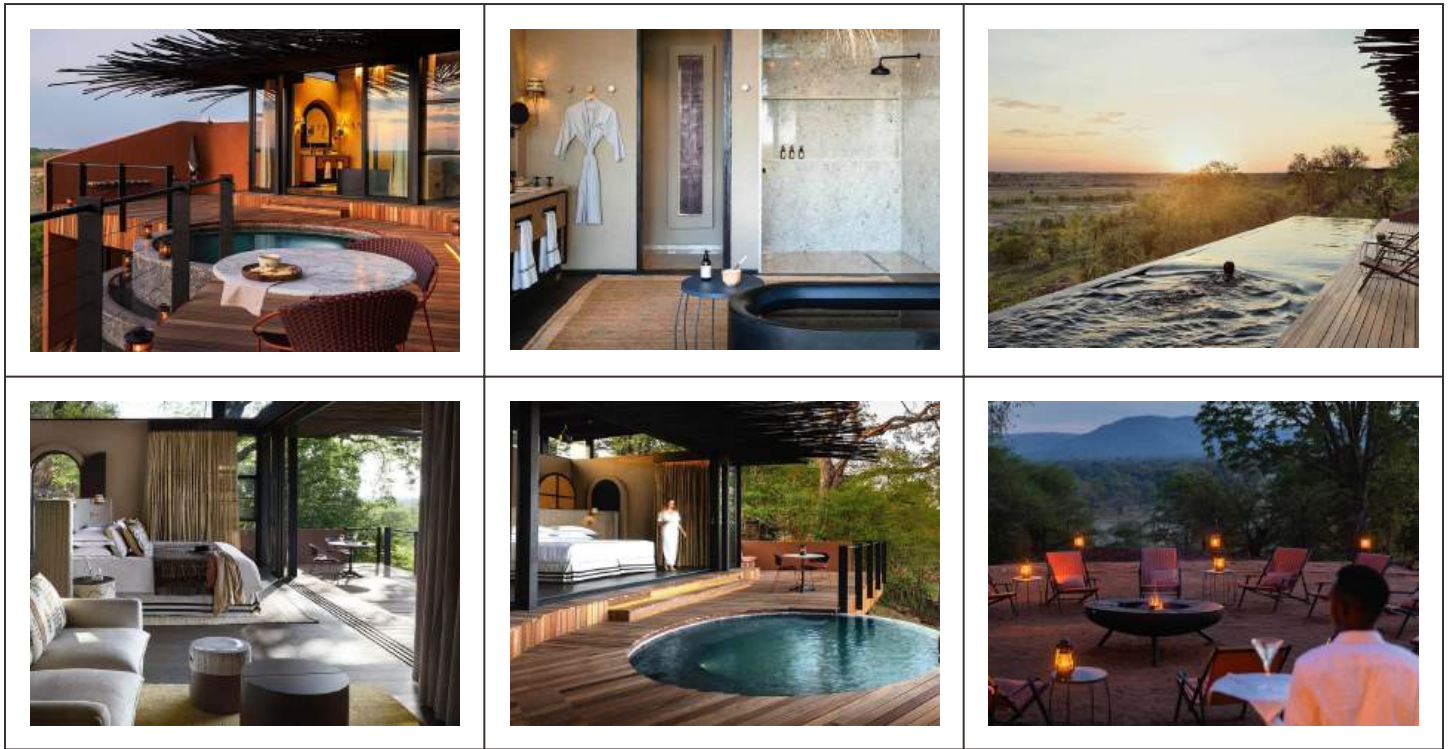

Puku Ridge (site inspection)

Puku Ridge is one of South Luangwa's premier luxury safari lodges, set on an elevated ridge overlooking a wildlife-rich floodplain deep within the national park. Blending contemporary design with an authentic bush experience, the lodge is renowned for its exceptional guiding, panoramic views, and intimate atmosphere. The property features 8 luxurious tented suites, each with a private plunge pool, indoor and outdoor showers, and a signature star bed for sleeping under the African sky.

Chichele Presidential

One of Zambia's most iconic luxury safari lodges, perched high above the Luangwa Valley with sweeping views across South Luangwa National Park. Originally built as a retreat for Zambia's first president, Kenneth Kaunda, the lodge has been beautifully reimaged into an elegant safari property combining contemporary luxury with rich history. The lodge features 10 spacious Vista Suites, each with air-conditioning, private plunge pools, and panoramic bush views.

Information on FAM host

Dan Bradshaw : Co Founder, Tusks & Trails

Before establishing Tusks & Trails, Dan dedicated five years to Audley Travel, where he specialized in tailor-made travel experiences in Africa. During that time, he collaborated closely with both agents and clients to create exceptional safari adventures.

After relocating to Zambia, Dan and Cath launched Tusks & Trails to merge that operational expertise with authentic, on-the-ground insights and connections.

He is deeply committed to ensuring that both clients and agents enjoy a seamless and pleasurable experience.

His favourite safari activity - a G&T sundowner after a game drive!
